I've said it before and I will say it again- Kids are a big deal here at J1Naz! It's been crazy this past year to have any consistency in our attendance in Kidventure- however we want to thank you for bringing them each week that you are able. Learning to be a Jesus Follower is our priority, and we want to thank you parents for sharing them with us. Please continue to pray for the leaders and the kids as we begin a new year. We are always open to volunteers and if that is an area you feel God speaking to you about- please feel free to contact me. 701-710-1918
